

Ruidoso Downs Race Track & Casino Selects Aristocrat System, Games for Its Remodel

Race Track Set to Celebrate Grand Opening on May 25

LAS VEGAS (May 22, 2018) – Ruidoso Downs Race Track & Casino in Ruidoso, N.M. has leveraged its existing partnership with Aristocrat to upgrade its Oasis 360™ casino management system and to purchase new system hardware and software modules to further enhance its existing system performance.

Additionally, by executing a Games-and-Systems Bundle package, Ruidoso Downs purchased player-favorite Aristocrat games products for its extensive and exciting remodel, which will be completed before the new racing season starts on May 25.

Ruidoso Downs President/GM Jeff True said, “We have been making very thoughtful and substantial investments in the property, transforming the casino floor and infrastructure to create the best-possible experience for our guests. Part of that investment is delivering in the best games and systems products available so that our guests can enjoy the newest games and be rewarded for their play. We are very pleased with our agreement with Aristocrat for what the games and systems bundle brings to our players.”

Aristocrat has installed its Oasis 360 casino management system which, in addition to its multiple software solutions, includes nCompass™ 4.3 hardware installation, a turnkey network hardware solution.

Additionally, Aristocrat installed its Oasis ONE LINK™ media and promotion modules which feature precise touchscreen technology and is designed using the latest web-based technology, giving users a superior browser-based interface.

Aristocrat has also installed its Oasis ONE LINK™ solution, a fully customizable, integrated media and marketing solution that delivers eye-catching media throughout the casino. ONE LINK also delivers promotions, account information and customer service features, like resort outlet promotions and offers.

Further, Aristocrat won increased casino floor share and will install a wide range of 50 player-favorite game titles on the Helix™ upright cabinet and on the Arc™ Single cabinet.

“We are proud of the relationship we have built with Ruidoso Downs, and we are thrilled to be playing such a pivotal role in their remodel,” said Aristocrat’s Vice President of System Sales Clark Warren. “Our casino partners across North America trust Aristocrat to provide player-favorite games and best-of-breed systems solutions that entertain and reward their guests. It’s a trust we take very seriously and work diligently to build on every day.”

Aristocrat’s Oasis 360 system is one of the most widely used casino management systems in North America, and comprises essential solutions for the modern casino, ranging from accounting to player loyalty.
